The Library and Learning Spaces Charter

Library staff are committed to providing all our users with high quality services and facilities, but we can only achieve this in partnership with you. Please help us to help you to make the most of library services and facilities. This Library and Learning Spaces charter describes the expectations and responsibilities of both parties.

What you can expect from us	To help us achieve this we ask you to
A welcoming environment with a range of study spaces to suit different learning and research styles.	Respect the rights of other library users.
	Treat learning environments with care and respect.
	Work in a learning space that matches your study needs by following guidance on notices provided.
	Use the booking system appropriately to ensure all students have equal access to bookable study spaces.
Library staff who treat all library users fairly and equally, with dignity, courtesy and respect, whilst recognising the differing needs of users.	Treat all staff and students fairly and equally, with dignity, courtesy and respect, both in person and online.
	Promptly follow any instruction provided by staff e.g. in emergency evacuation or at closing times.
Library staff who are identifiable, and contact details are available on the library web pages.	Carry your University ID card at all times.
	Visitors should bring photographic ID.

What you can expect from us	To help us achieve this we ask you to
Library staff who consult with academic colleagues to ensure	Respect the resources provided.
library services and resources match and support teaching,	0. " 1 learning and research needs.	Staff and students should attend the library introduction and
Library staff who engage with students, giving them the	all related library sessions that are provided to support academic study.
opportunity to have input into the development of the library	academic study.
services and learning spaces.	Request help when needed and take advantage of the 9 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 -	advice and support that is available.
Access to a range of up to date resources, both online and print, with training and support available to help you find the information that you need.
Continual development of services and facilities to ensure they meet user needs.
Information about services and learning spaces will be kept	Chook your university email account regularly for library
	Check your university email account regularly for library
accurate and up-to-date, and will be communicated regularly	communications.
	communications.
accurate and up-to-date, and will be communicated regularly	communications.  Visitors who have borrowing rights should check the email
accurate and up-to-date, and will be communicated regularly	communications.
accurate and up-to-date, and will be communicated regularly	communications.  Visitors who have borrowing rights should check the email
accurate and up-to-date, and will be communicated regularly via our webpages, and social media channels.	communications.  Visitors who have borrowing rights should check the email account provided on their application.  All library users should use the 'My Account' area of the library website to keep up-to-date with loans, renewal, fines accurate and up-to-date, and will be communicated regularly via our webpages, and social media channels.  Courtesy reminders that items are due for renewal, are overdue,	Communications.  Visitors who have borrowing rights should check the email account provided on their application.  All library users should use the 'My Account' area of the accurate and up-to-date, and will be communicated regularly via our webpages, and social media channels.  Courtesy reminders that items are due for renewal, are overdue,	Communications.  Visitors who have borrowing rights should check the email account provided on their application.  All library users should use the 'My Account' area of the library website to keep up-to-date with loans, renewal, fines and reservations.
accurate and up-to-date, and will be communicated regularly via our webpages, and social media channels.  Courtesy reminders that items are due for renewal, are overdue,	Communications.  Visitors who have borrowing rights should check the email account provided on their application.  All library users should use the 'My Account' area of the library website to keep up-to-date with loans, renewal, fines and reservations.  Keep up-to-date with library developments by regularly accurate and up-to-date, and will be communicated regularly via our webpages, and social media channels.  Courtesy reminders that items are due for renewal, are overdue,	Communications.  Visitors who have borrowing rights should check the email account provided on their application.  All library users should use the 'My Account' area of the library website to keep up-to-date with loans, renewal, fines and reservations.

What you can expect from us	To help us achieve this we ask you to
A variety of feedback opportunities including email, online and physical suggestion boxes.	Feedback any comments or suggestions either directly to the library or via other feedback opportunities e.g. Students' Union, Course reps, Staff Student Liaison Committees,
Timely responses and where necessary we will refer to other University services e.g. Estates.	Student Sounding Board.
Where appropriate we will incorporate suggestions into our service planning and delivery.
Library staff will aim to resolve queries when they are raised. However, if this is not possible, you will be provided with the details of the person your question is being referred to and they will respond promptly.
A clear Library complaints procedure for addressing student concerns.	Raise any queries promptly.
A clear Code of Considerate Behaviour which will be displayed on library webpages and in the libraries.	Familiarise yourself with the Library's Code of Considerate Behaviour.

The Library and Learning Spaces Charter is usually reviewed every two years, with the next review to take place during the 2025-26 academic year.

