Contemporary Britain

We are delighted to offer 3 week courses in May and June on a range of interdisciplinary themes for our partner universities. We do hope you will join us.

Cost:

3 week course: 18th May - 9th June 2024, £2,600, 3 USA academic credits.

Course theme: Contemporary Britain

This Maymester course explores notions of Britishness and gives international students an interesting opportunity to study contemporary British society and some of its past! It is an inter-disciplinary course which explores culture, politics, history and society.

Week 1 is about British Life, understanding the origins and transformations of the United Kingdom. This gives students a good basis to investigate Britain further in Week 2. The classes in Week 2 will explore the evolution of British values and consider socio-political changes in recent times. Students will learn about cultures and sub-cultures which have impacted society.

(Some of these activities may have a small additional cost, including local transport.)

Teaching takes place for the first 2 weeks, with morning classes delivered by Hope Faculty for a total of 30 hours teaching. In the third week, students will develop skills in independent and team working, time management, presentation and critical thinking, and analysis as they work on assessment tasks.
